User Documentation

- visual walk-through of all the features, and their steps

Landing Page

As a user not logged in, they need to see the landing page with high-level details about the project (name,description)
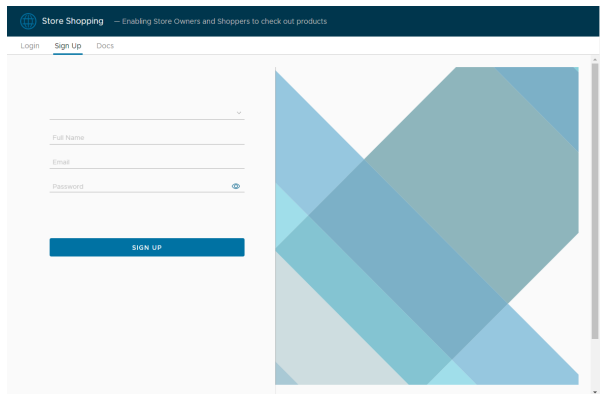

Open the website - We are not logged in, and are given the login form

Sign-Up

Starting from the "Landing" page, click on the "Sign Up" menu link

From the landing page, click on the sign up button

Sign Up as a Shopper

As a user not logged in, there shall be functionality to sign up as a Shopper
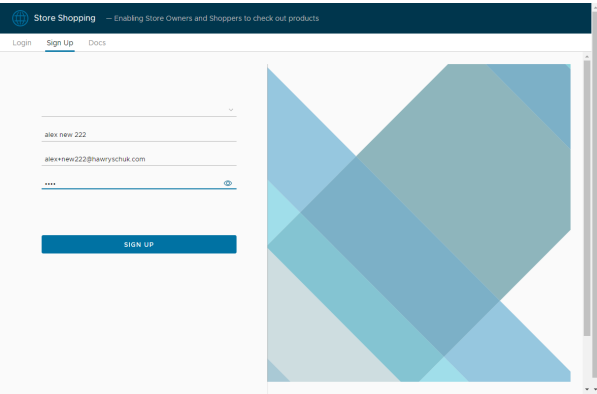

Starting from the "Sign Up" page, fill in your email,

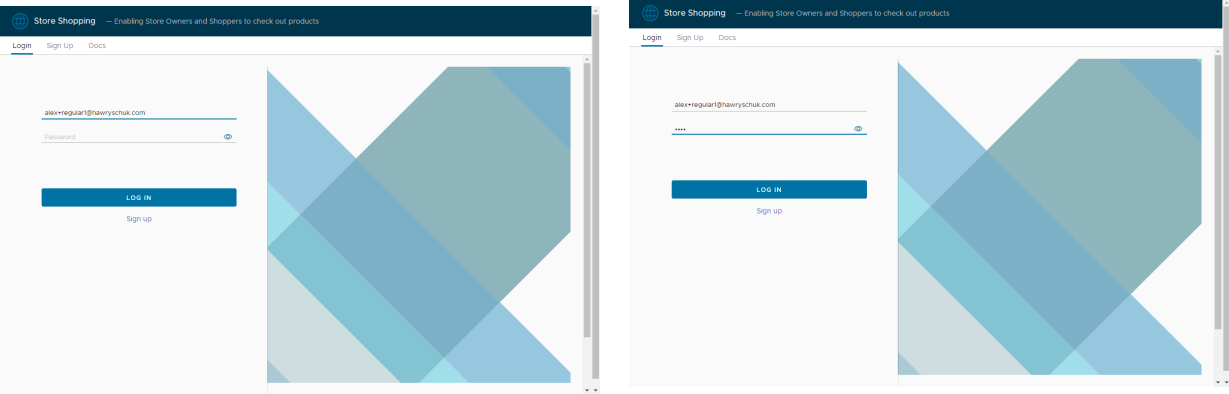

...your name,

...and password.

To finish, clicking on "Sign Up" will have you signed up, and signed in.

Log In as a Shopper

Starting from the "Log In" page, fill in your email address....
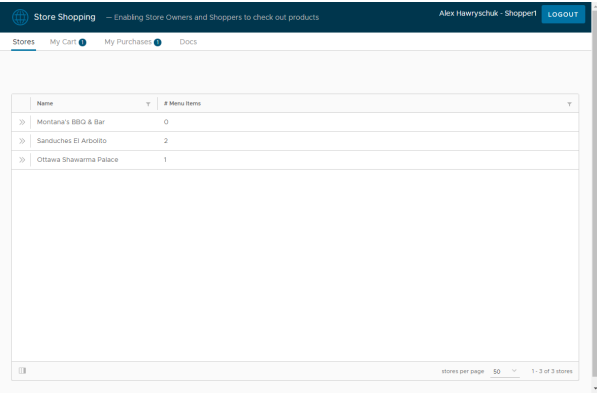

...your password,

...and after clicking on the "Login" button, you will be logged into the home page

View Stores

As a signed in regular user, I will see the list of stores
View Store Details

The "Store Details" includes the name, number of menu items, and a list of menu-items

Starting from the "stores" page,   ...click on the row of the store and to view the
   "store details" (the menu items)

Note: When a store has no menu items, you may see the indication

Add A Store

As a Store Owner, I am able to manage the list of stores I have, and can add another store
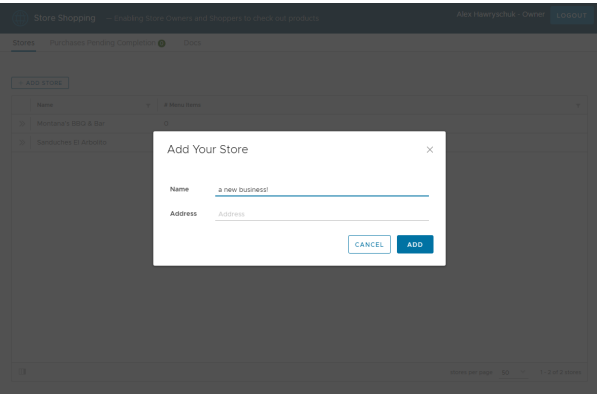

Having signed in, and seeing the list of "My Stores",
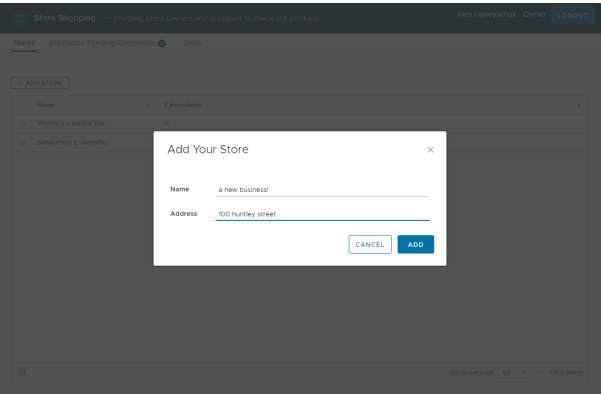

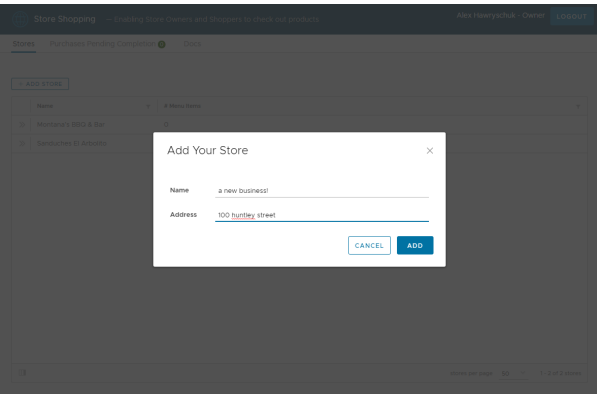

...click on "Add Store"

...and then fill in the name,

...and then the address,

...and finish by clicking on "Save"

Add A New Menu Item

As a Store Owner, I am able to manage the list of menu items for each store (crud:name,price)
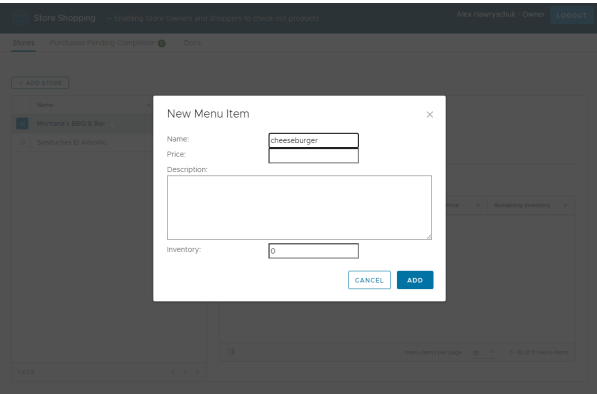

Having signed in, and seeing the list of "My Stores",
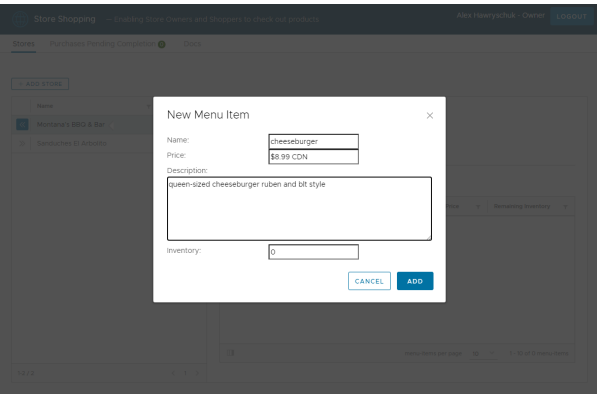

...click on the "Add Menu Item" button,

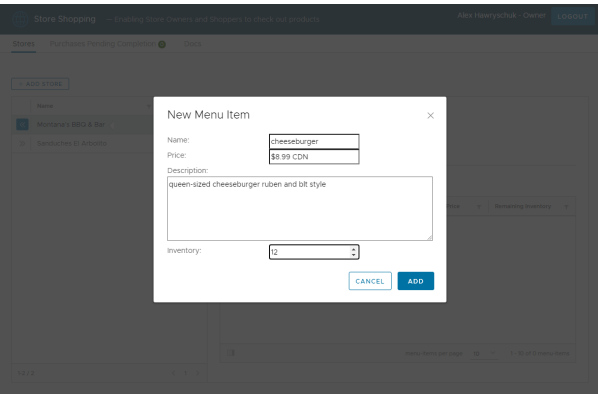

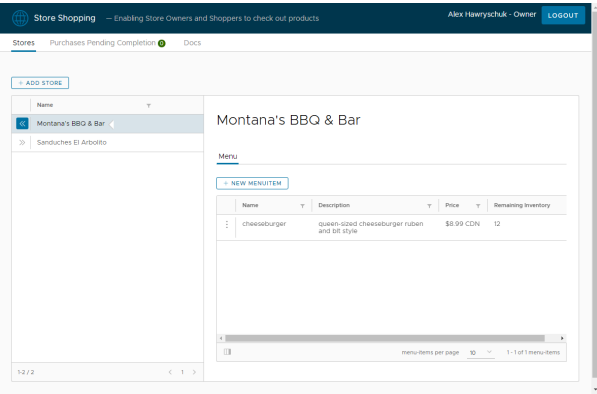

...fill in the name,

...the price,

...the description,

...the amount of inventory (optional),

...and finally finish by clicking on the "Add"
button

Delete a Menu Item

As a Store Owner, I can delete menu items

Having signed in, and seeing the list of "My Stores", click on the menu item,

...and then the "Delete Menu Item" button (from the dropdown that appeared).

Edit a Menu Item / Replenish product inventory

As a Store Owner, I can update the inventory/menuitem details

Having signed in, and seeing the list of "My Stores", click on the menu item,

...and then the "Edit Menu Item" button (from the dropdown that appeared).

Update the description

And the new inventory adjustment

...and finish by clicking on the "Save" button
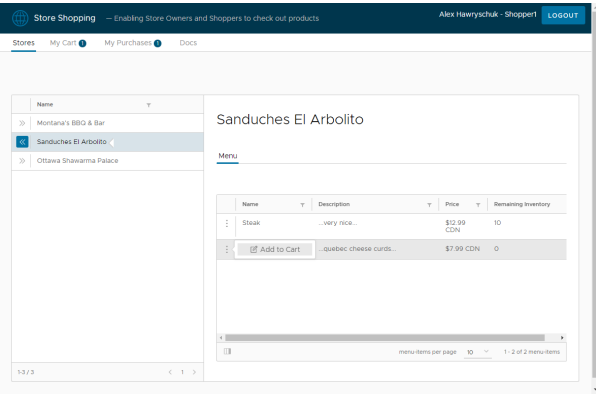

View My Purchases

As a shopper, I am interested in seeing the past purchases I've made, and the progress of my recent purchases.

Error Detection: Add Items to Cart

As a regular user, you can add store menu items to your shopping cart

Starting from the "Store Details View" screen, and attempting to add the second menu item (with no inventory left),

...having clicked on "Add to Cart" we will be alerted of the inability

Add Items to Cart

As a regular user, you can add store menu items to your shopping cart

Starting from the "Store Details View" screen,

...click on the dropdown button (ellipses symbol) on the left side of the user row,

...and then click on "Add To Cart". Your shopping cart now has one item.

View My Cart

As a regular user, having items in the cart, you may view the "My Cart" page to see the total cost and check out

Starting from the "Store Details View" screen,

You may view your shopping cart by clicking on the "My Cart" link,

...and you may checkout by clicking on the "Check Out" button

Purchase items in "My Cart" (Checkout)

As a regular user, having items in the cart, you may check-out the items and create a purchase Starting from the "My Cart Page" screen,

...and you may checkout by clicking on the "Check Out" button
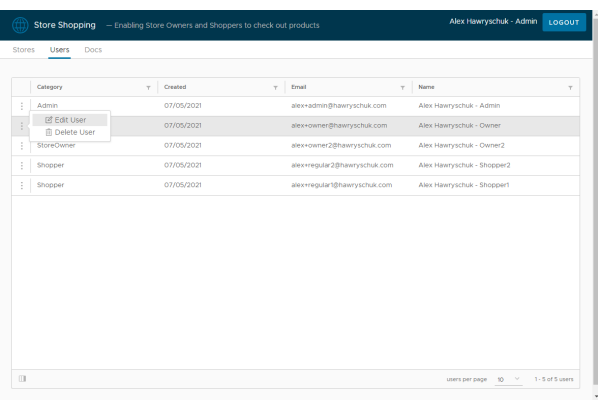

Delete a User

As an administrator user, I can delete users

Starting from the "Users" page,

...click on the dropdown button (ellipses symbol) on the left side of the user row,

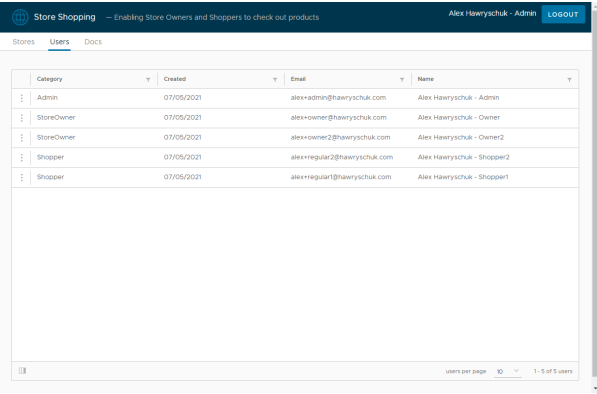

...and finally click on the "Delete User" button to delete the user.

Edit a User

As an administrator user, I can edit users
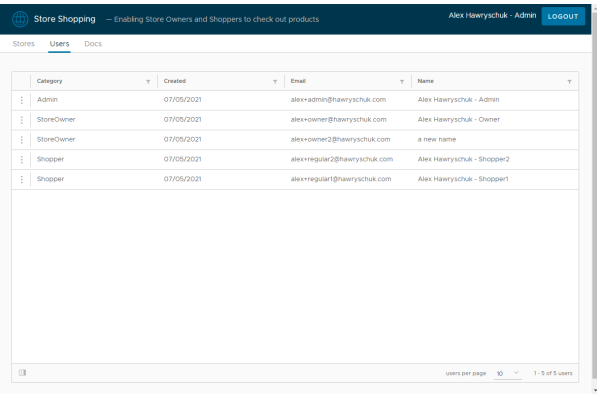

Starting from the "Users" page,   ...click on the dropdown button (ellipses symbol) on the left side of the user row,

...and then click on the "Edit User" button,   ...and then proceed to enter in your changes,
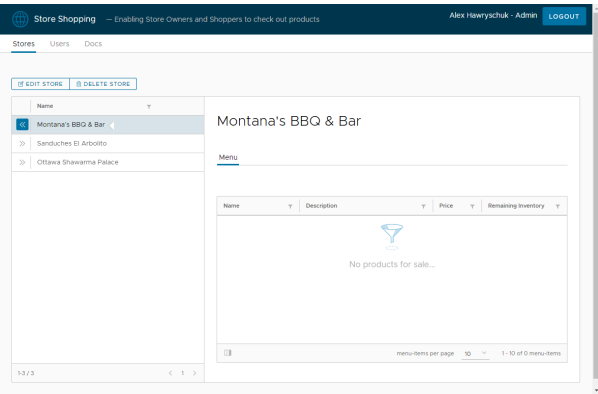

...and finally, click on the "Save" button.

Delete a Store
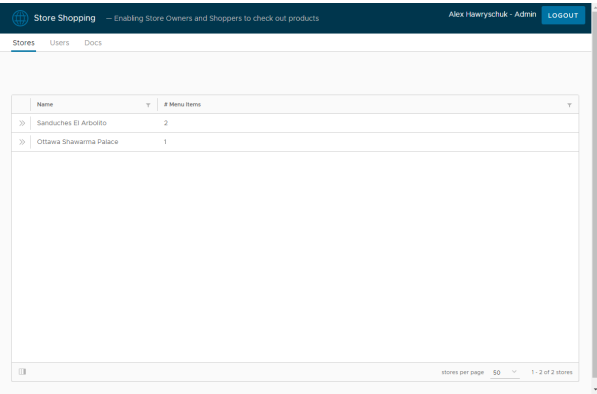

As an administrator user, I can delete stores

Having signed in as an admin user, I can see a list of stores

Click on the "view" button for the store you wish to remove

Click on the "delete" button

Edit a Store

As an administrator user, I can edit stores

Having signed in as an admin user, I can see a list of stores

Click on the "view" button for the store you wish to edit

Click on the "Edit Store" button

Make changes, such as typing a new name

Click on the save button

Error Detection: Log In

The username must exist, and the password must be correct login-unknown-user

login-invalid-password

Error Detection: Sign up

The email must be valid, not already signed up, have a name, and a password.

signup-user-exists

signup-invalid-email

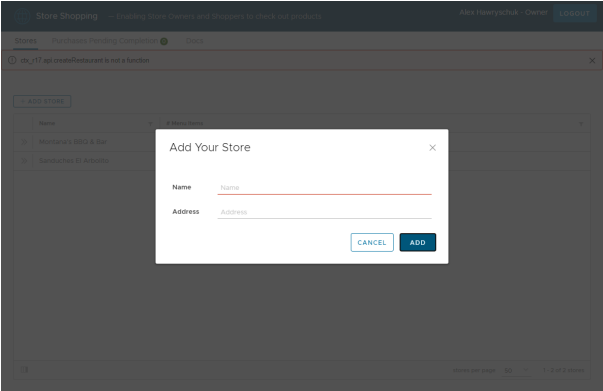

signup-invalid-name

signup-invalid-password

Error Detection: Create a store

Stores must have a name

Starting from after clicking on the "Create Store" button,

Without filling in the store name, and submitting...

Error Detection: Delete a User

The administrator cannot delete his own user account

Starting from the "Users" page, try to delete your account...

Error Detection: Edit a User

A User must have a name

Starting from the "Users" page, having clicked opened the "Edit User" dialog,

...and pressing save.

Error Detection: Edit Store

A store is required to have a name

Starting from the "Edit Store" dialog,

...once you click save, an alert will display.